Your Partner's Information

Applicants are expected to apply as a participant pair. Participant pairs may be formed between two PSO unit faculty as well as between unit faculty and PSO faculty in a college or school. Each participant pair will collaborate on a given scholarship topic and will work together on scholarship and as accountability partners.

Participant pairs may also consist of two faculty who have recently completed their dissertations. In this case, the participant pair will serve as accountability partners to turn their individual dissertation research into scholarly publications and presentations.

Each partner must submit his or her own application.
